

CALL FOR PROPOSALS
CO-SUPERVISED
DOCTORATES 2019
UNIVERSITY OF KENT

6 co-supervised doctorates with the aim of strengthening cooperation between I-SITE ULNE and the University of Kent.

Three PhD projects will be funded on the French side (via the present call) and three PhD projects on the British side.

Interested applicants may submit a thesis project in any subject field with one or more (co-)supervisors from the University of Kent. The PhD candidates selected via the present call will be principally attached to the research team of the promotor associated with I-SITE ULNE. Successful candidates must spend at least one year in the laboratory of the University of Kent supervisor during the three years of the doctorate. Following a successful doctoral defence, the PhD candidate will obtain a doctoral degree from each institution.

A grant may be requested through the call "short-term mobility grant" if the (co-)promotors from I-SITE ULNE would like to meet the University of Kent (co-)supervisors in order to help the applicant prepare the application.

PhD applicants must submit their application by email to the following address: projects@isite-ulne.fr, by May 2, 2019 at 23:59 GMT +1.

1. Framework

I-SITE ULNE is a consortium composed by the following members: University of Lille, Centrale Lille, ENSAIT, ENSCL, IMT Lille-Douai, Sciences Po Lille, ESJ, ENSAPL, ENSAM Campus de Lille, CNRS, INSERM, INRIA, CHU de Lille and Institut Pasteur de Lille. In 2017, this consortium received a prestigious I-SITE grant from the French government in order to create a new world-class university through sustaining and expanding excellence in research and education.

In the context of an increasingly competitive international university landscape, reinforcing collaborations is decisive. I-SITE ULNE is eager to engage in international collaborations, in which the University of Kent has agreed to become an external partner.

As part of this collaboration between the members of I-SITE ULNE and the University of Kent, a total of 6 co-supervised doctorates (co-tutelles) will be financed (3 by I-SITE ULNE via the present call and 3 by the University of Kent). The University of Kent and I-SITE ULNE are committed to renewing this call on an annual basis for a total of 3 consecutive years.

2. Eligibility criteria

PhD Candidate

- ✍ The applicant should hold a master's degree or equivalent (minimum of 5 years of post-secondary education) before the start of the doctorate.
- ✍ There are no restrictions on nationality or age.
- ✍ The applicant should have an English level of B2 or higher at the start of the PhD.

Project

- ✍ The thesis topic is open to any subject field covered by the members of I-SITE ULNE and the University of Kent.
- ✍ The project must be submitted in English.

- ✎ The PhD-candidate must have at least one promoter from a member of I-SITE ULNE¹ and one supervisor from the University of Kent. He/She may also have an additional co-promoter/supervisor from each institution.

Promoters/supervisors and co-promoters/supervisors

- ✎ At least one (co-)promoter from I-SITE ULNE must be qualified (habilité) to direct doctoral research.
- ✎ At least one member of the supervisory team from Kent must be an approved Supervisory Chair.

3. Selection process

Only proposals submitted before the deadline are eligible. A PhD candidate should apply to this call if he/she wants to spend the majority of his/her time in the I-SITE ULNE laboratory.

All projects eligible for this call will be evaluated by a selection committee, according to three areas: the academic profile of the PhD candidate, the profile of the promoters/supervisors and co-promoters/supervisors and the scientific quality of project.

Applicants cannot apply through the present call and the call launched by the University of Kent at the same time.

The evaluation will be carried out according to the following criteria:

1) PhD-candidate

- ✎ Previous academic performance
- ✎ Motivation
- ✎ Proficiency in English
- ✎ Prior scientific publications

2) Promoters/supervisors and co-promoters/supervisors

- ✎ Skills, expertise and commitment of the (co-)promoters/supervisors
- ✎ Research results

3) Project proposal

a. Quality and originality of the project

- ✎ Clarity of the objectives
- ✎ Potential for progress with respect to the state of the art
- ✎ Originality of the topic

b. Implementation of the project

- ✎ Appropriateness of the means with respect to the objectives
- ✎ Work plan, methodology and risk management
- ✎ Expected outputs and calendar

c. Impacts of the project

- ✎ Potential to stimulate future research projects
- ✎ Scientific, technological, social, economic and/or cultural impacts
- ✎ Strategy for the dissemination and exploitation of the research

If the PhD candidate is selected:

¹ Université de Lille, Centrale Lille, ENSAIT, ENSCL, IMT Lille-Douai, Sciences Po Lille, ESJ, ENSAPL, ENSAM- Campus de Lille, CNRS, INSERM, INRIA, CHRU de Lille and Institut Pasteur de Lille
